ALFRED STUART NEASE

Stuart Nease has spent his school life at Bedford Park Public School and L.C.P.I. While he was at Bedford Park, he struggled manfully with the three R's, but High School brought a sudden change when the aptitude for languages asserted itself. He attended an early morning Greek class, thought Latin was tops and enjoyed German and French equally well.

He played a leading role in "Disraeli" and was the Commentator in last year's "Evolution of the Dance". He was Editor-in-Chief of the Robur in 1939-1940.

Four years ago Stuart decided to work for a scholarship in languages. He never lost sight of this ambition, which culminated in his winning the Special James Harris scholarship for German, French, Greek and Latin. He also got nineteen first class honours in Middle and Upper school examinations.

Besides this work he has found time for swimming and fencing. He was in full charge of a Scout camp last summer, which included a number of riotous Lawrence Parkers.

Stuart is now taking the honour course in Classics at University College, and is already striving for fresh laurels for Lawrence Park.

DOROTHY ELLISON

When Lawrence Park lost Dorothy, it lost a fine girl and true student who will be missed by many. The winner of the coveted Morley Wickett scholarship in English and History, Dorothy is this year pursuing her studies at University College. Just what she will do after graduation is not certain; library work perhaps, but she does not want to teach. Dorothy admitted that her last year at Lawrence Park, to which she brought such an honour as a university award, was the most enjoyable year of her high school life. Her quiet humour and tactfulness won her many friends, and she was able to make several classes more interesting with her accounts of life in Germany. For one year, between fourth and fifth form she lived there, and studied German in a course designed particularly for foreigners at the University of Berlin. There were students from many nations, Spain and Japan for example, and Dorothy made some very interesting friends. Now that she is back in Toronto studying, she enjoys Varsity whole-heartedly, and is particularly interested in the French and German clubs whose members have wonderful times. We wish Dorothy continuance of her success and the best of luck in her new work.

AHOY!

WE INTERVIEW OUR WAR GUESTS

War Guests: Seated: Philippa Hingley, Angela Tillyard, Joan Zilva, Betty Buckland, Jacqueline Young.
 Standing: Allan Osborn, David Webb, Patrick D. Willoughby, David Cottrill, Ian C. Pirrie, Edwyn Johnston, Allan Provost, Alan Gibson, Neville Holden.

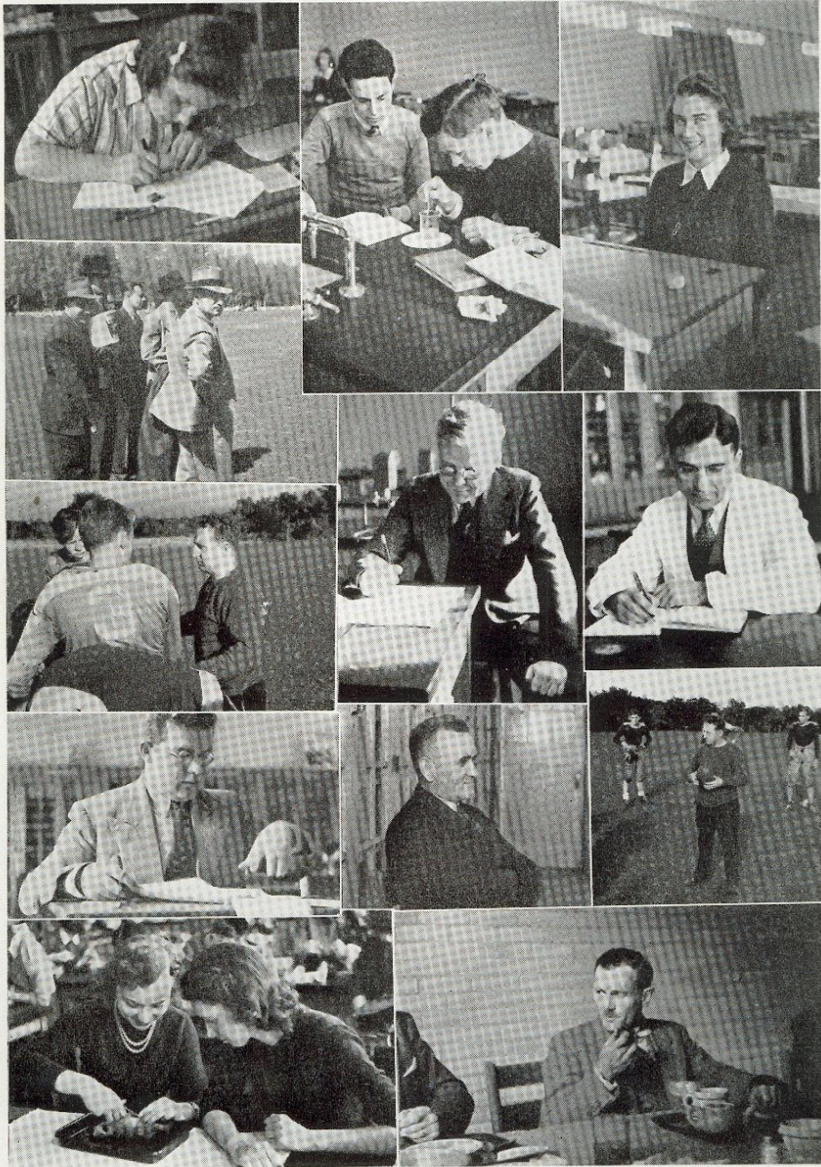

Last September sixteen boys and girls from various parts of England and Scotland entered Lawrence Park Collegiate. Since then we have learned to know and like them all, and no doubt we have often wondered just what their opinions were of us, our habits, our school, and our city. In fact, we have probably asked them hundreds of times, "What do you think of Canada?", or, "How do you like the snow here?" In order to answer everyone's questions at the same time, the Robur issued a questionnaire to each, asking him or her to answer the questions frankly. In most cases, the answers were frank indeed, but we know that although they criticized us rather harshly, our guests have really found us sympathetic hosts and hostesses, and congenial companions.

Everyone of the sixteen, without exception, is tired of being asked "How do you like Canada"; so, a word to the wise . . .

They have been asked at least five thousand times "How do you like the snow here?" Three waxed enthusiastic in praise of our ice-cream, although they find it a bit expensive. Two are heartily in favour of our salads, one praised our maple syrup, and, can you believe it, one person actually does not like our Cokes!

As for our styles, the best comments were: "They try to make young people look older, and old people younger," and "Male styles fine, female divine!" Opinion is varied on the question of whether or not we have as good a time here as do boys and girls in England and Scotland. One person said that we had too much homework, and surely we all heartily agree.

Our guests object to so much advertising in newspapers, magazines, and over the radio. They are not very fond of our comics, probably because most of them are not comical, and they do not like so many love stories in magazines.

ACTIVITIES

THE LAWRENCE PARK CADET CORPS

The Lawrence Park Cadet Corps training comprises instruction in elementary drill, signalling, anti-aircraft, bugle-band, and first aid.

Firstly, however, we would like to show you the origin of the body of boys who are constantly giving up their time to pass their knowledge on to us. Of course we are talking about the O.T.C. (Officers Training Corps.) These boys came to school early

The organizers of the cadets were Mr. Wilkins and Mr. MacLean who gave up all their spare time to help these officers learn all they know about military work. The result? Well, we have officers to instruct us in every aspect of military drill. The commanding officer is Cadet Lieut.-Col. Bill Smallman, and second in command is Cadet Major Bud Rapson. The O.T.C. presented an inspiring display at the Home two mornings a week for three months. Even during the Christmas holidays they gave up some of their time to go down to the armouries to take instruction in rifle drill. These officers are passing tests to qualify for their Cadet Officers Certificate. The practical test has been taken and later on in the year they will write a theoretical test.

and School Club's "Military Night" when the Lawrence Park Cadet Corps received its colours.

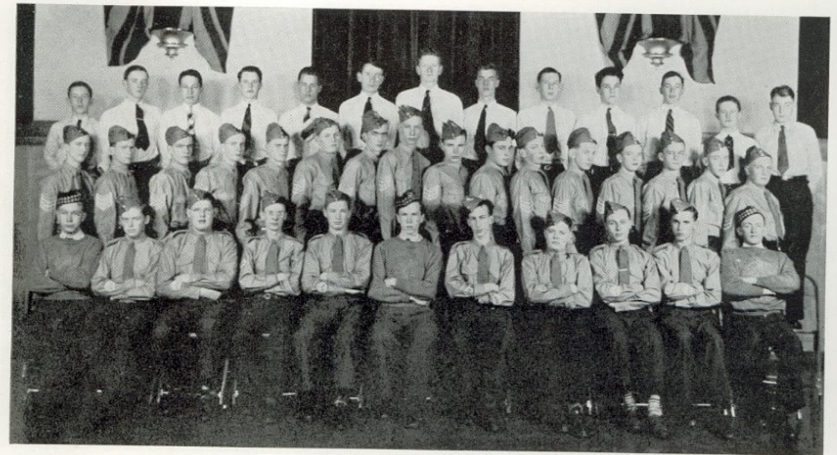

What is a Cadet Corps without a drum and bugle band? Very shortly the battalion will have an excellent band to play for it on route-marches and inspections. Here is another marvellous opportunity for boys to learn either to drum, or to play a brass instrument. The only way to learn to play drums is to learn by military rudiments, and similarly the only way to learn to play a wind-instrument is to build up a lip for one. In this band you get free instruction, and, what is more important, free instruments for your use. The band, of course, gets all the military drill that the other sections receive.

One very important department in the military curriculum at L.P. is the training that the boys may receive in signalling. A cadet is able to learn two types of signal-

The anti-aircraft batteries of many English towns play an important part in the Battle of Britain. In our own school we have an anti-aircraft platoon in which the members are instructed by Cadet Lieut. Robinson in the fundamentals of anti-aircraft technique. Its members have had drill in operating the Lewis gun and have scrutinized charts of the Vickers heavy machine-gun and the Bren gun. They have also had practise in aircraft identification. Within its short period of operation, the "Ack-Ack" platoon has accomplished a wealth of ling, morse and semaphore. At three-thirty the signal-platoon drills for a while and then it goes to buzzers and flags. This type of instruction is indispensable to a cadet corps, and, as a further inducement, and one which appeals to all boys, each cadet receives five dollars when he passes his morse test and two-fifty when he passes the semaphore test. The knowledge which a recruit acquires in this training is very useful for the rest of his life. Much credit is due to Mr. Levitt, who supervises the signals, and to Cadet Captain Hugh Martin who has trained all the boys in the platoon.

One section of our cadet corps that we are very proud of is the pipe-band. Many of the band have learned how to play the bagpipes at the school under the instruction of Cadet Pipe Major Art Stone. This band played at the "Military Night", and at rugby games. Its greatest social engagement was the piping in of the food at the annual "At Home." All the cadets find the bagpipe music perfect for marching to on route-marches. They impart a realistic military tone to our cadet corps.

GIRLS' CLUB

J. Shoemaker, P. Manby, I. Stuart, C. Lewis.

This year Miss Reddick organized a Red Cross Group within the school, with the help of the Girls' Club. Every girl is expected to attend the meetings each Wednesday afternoon unless she has a reasonable excuse. Some of the girls are knitting socks, helmets, scarves, and mittens, for the soldiers, sailors and airmen. Others are knitting for the babies' layettes which are to be sent to new-born babies in the bombed sections of England. In the layettes are put sweaters, booties, bonnets, nighties, etc.

Miss Gairns has a group knitting and sewing for the refugee children, and they have made many useful articles. A sewing group is supervised by Miss Howard.

In Miss Strangways' group the girls are knitting socks for the ditty bags which some of the forms are preparing as an extra class project. Into the ditty bags will also go other knitted articles and luxuries for the sailors, such as gum, ink, writing paper, pencils and other useful articles.

On the last Tuesday of every month each form takes up a collection which is to be used for school war-work. The Girls' Club wishes to take this opportunity to thank members and friends who have been kind enough to send us donations to help with our war-work. We appreciate this very much.

Miss Reddick and the Girls' Club wish to thank those Mothers and Teachers' Wives who have helped us organize our Red Cross, and who have now taken charge of some of the groups. It is very kind of them to give up their time for us each Wednesday afternoon.

The Executive of the Girls' Club and the girls of the school wish to thank Miss Strangways and Miss Gairns for their leadership of the Club this year.

Betty-Lou Zapfe went to the drug store for some pills.

"Anti-bilious?" asked the clerk.

"No, they're for my uncle."

THE BOYS' CHOIR

For the first time Lawrence Park had a boys' choir to entertain the audience at the Christmas Concert.

The boys, fifty-five in all, practised earnestly for five weeks previous to the concert. The white shirts and blue and gold ties looked very striking on the stage.

All the school is proud of this group, whipped into shape by the hard-working Mr. Perrin.

TYPING CLUB

The Typing Club is a 1940 addition to the extra-curricular activities of the school. Students who have portable typewriters and wish to learn touch typing meet with Mr. McIntyre on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 3.30. The beginners learn which finger hits what key, and the more expert improve their skill with speed-races and accuracy-drills.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING GROUP

Again this year the Red Cross Home Nursing Group was under the direction of Mrs. Storey. There were twelve lessons in the course which included special lectures by doctors, a dentist, and a dietitian. The girls were given practical training in the care of a patient, bandaging, and how to act in emergencies.

All the lessons were most instructive, and the girls of the group would like to thank Mrs. Storey for her kindness in giving her time to its direction.

SENIOR GIRLS' CHOIR

THE JUNIOR GIRLS' CHOIR

The Junior Girls' Choir was formed in the fall of 1939, for First Form girls who were interested in music. The Choir met on Friday afternoon under the leadership of Mr. Perrin, assisted by Jean Wood, to whom goes the Choir's heartfelt appreciation for the hard work she put into a task which is not easy nor, at times, enviable.

The Junior Choir was able to fulfil several engagements. At the Christmas Concert the Choir contributed several Christmas carols to the success of the evening. Later on, the girls of the Junior Choir along with the Senior Girls' Choir sang at Eglinton United Church and Bedford Park United Church.

The success of the Junior Choir was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Perrin who gave time and enthusiasm to the organization of the Club.

The Choir has proved invaluable as a background for those girls who later found a place in the Senior Choir, and as a means of entertainment for First Form girls.

A wise man never blows his knows.

L.P.C.I. BAND

Under the direction of Mr. M. B. Chenhall, the L.P.C.I. Band, consisting of about thirty members, was very successful during the school year of 1939-40. It was rather discouraging at first because most of the members were just learning to play their instruments and required Saturday practices at Mr. Chenhall's home.

We were soon able to read music at a fair rate and could keep up to the more advanced players. Gradually our repertoire was increased and we gave a number of concerts during the school year. With the proceeds we were able to purchase music for many new pieces.

The band resumed its activities at the opening of school in September with practices each Tuesday afternoon in preparation for concerts to be given during the Spring Term.

Florence Hooker was being shown through the locomotive shop. "What is this enormous thing?" she asked. "That", explained the guide, "is a locomotive boiler." "And why do they boil locomotives?" she insisted. "To make the engine tender," he answered.

SENIOR HI-Y EXECUTIVE

Mr. R. H. Lewis, Robert M. Gray, Verne M. Booth, Frank C. Dimock, William Stowe, Advisor. Vice-President. President. Secretary. Treasurer.

HI-Y CLUBS

Since its organization in November, 1936, the L.P. Senior Hi-Y Club has increased in activity as the school has grown older.

The purpose of a Hi-Y club is, "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." With the aid of the Staff Advisor, Mr. Lewis, this year the Senior Club has assumed more responsibilities as a service organization. Together with the Girls' Club, it conducted a collection of clothing for use among the needy in Britain, and a basket-collection to aid the school's War Fund. Also, the club attended to the assembling and sending of a useful Christmas box to each former L.P. student who had enlisted and who was not home during that season. Each member is now corresponding with at least one of these men on active service.

The Senior Club this year has thirty members including thirteen grads and another on active service. Seven fellows from the Junior Club were initiated, but each of them, like all new members, was accepted only on the unanimous approval of the other members. According to his own choice, every fellow joins one of three committees: Programme, Service, or Social. Meetings are held in the homes of the members and at the "Y". Guest speakers give very beneficial talks on Vocational Guidance, Character, and like topics.

Two years ago, the Senior Hi-Y Club undertook to form a separate Junior Club among the fellows in the lower forms. The position of mentor was very capably filled by Ross Shand, a past-president of the Senior group. Under his leadership the Junior Hi-Y Club accomplished a great deal. Lawrence Park pupils have benefited from their organizing of the lost-and-found cupboard and other services.

This year a second Junior executive was elected. The officers are: President, Bob Doner; Secretary, Ken Ames; Treasurer, Bob Sheppard.

The Senior Club is proud of the success and ambition of its junior partner.

VERSE-SPEAKING CHOIR

THE VERSE-SPEAKING CHOIR

The verse-speaking choir led by Miss Reddick has made great headway since it started two years ago. Its numbers have gradually increased to twenty and rehearsals are held every week. Miss Reddick has graded their voices as light, medium, or dark, and they are blended harmoniously.

The choir gave a number of selections at the Christmas concert, especially suitable for the Christmas season. In February they entertained Havergal College and St. Clements School at a Verse-Speaking Festival. In March they appeared on the radio in a program sponsored by the Speech Teachers' Association and at Easter, they were guests at the Ontario College of Education.

Interest in verse-speaking started far back with the ancient custom of chanting folk-songs and ballads — the Druid priests being the originators of the custom. Going on in history we come to the Greek theatres where the choruses chanted their lines.

Although Lawrence Park has the distinction of being the only collegiate to have a choir of this type, the movement is spreading all over England and the United States.

DRAMATICS

During 1940-41, the Dramatic Club scored a new high in its achievements. With Dick Ruggles as president and under the guidance of Miss Reddick, the club sponsored the Third Form Drama Festival in October, the First Form Drama Festival in November and produced its first entry in the Toronto Secondary Schools Drama Festival in January.

This year, Mr. Wilkins' "Makeshifters" were brought into the Dramatic Club proper. The "Makeshifters" are a group of thirty boys and girls who do all the work behind scenes — lighting, make-up rigging, costuming, etc. Since their organization in 1939, this group has filled a great need around Lawrence Park. They assist at Inter-Form Festivals as well as at Senior productions and at dances.

In the First Form Festival, seven plays were entered. These were judged by disinterested members of the staff. Form 1B produced the winning play, "The Stolen Prince" and honourable mention went to Clara Manson, Gerry Crossman, and Bob Wright. The winning play was performed again for the Home and School Club in January.

From the three plays in the Third Form Festival, "The Knave of Hearts," produced by 3D, was acclaimed the winner. Honourable mention went to Peggy Browne, Dorothy Johnston, and Bob Doner.

In the O. E. A. Verse Speaking Contest of 1940, Peggy Browne tied for first place. Dramatic Club awards for 1939-40 went to Nick Pappas, Art Cooke, Peggy Browne, and Norm Boogers.

In the Interschool contest we won second prize in the Natural History Group

Plans are being laid now for a complete reorganization of the Club for next year with special emphasis on photography as it is related to War. We propose to give a course in photography which will aid the boy who wants to enter the services of the Army or Air Force as photographer.

THE FENCING CLUB

The Lawrence Park Fencing Club has progressed rapidly during the past year. The club entered into the Fencing bouts with Harbord Collegiate and U.T.S. Last January the Fencing Club was left without a leader when Mr. Wilkins joined the Tank Corps. However, Mr. Wilkin's instructor, Mr. Walters, offered to train us. Mr. Walters is one of the best fencers on the continent and teaches fencing both at U.T.S. and Varsity. The Seniors of today were taught by Mr. Wilkins. A few years ago masks and half-coats were bought for the whole club out of the school's Sports' Fund.

Before the end of this year, the club will again enter tournaments. Those who wish to join the Fencing Club are always welcome.

SOCCER

Because of the difficulty of securing Wanless Park, the Lower School Soccer League was late in getting under way.

Once the games began the competition was fast and furious. When the smoke of battle had cleared away the A teams of 2F and 1E faced each other in the final. The final game was a humdinger with the champs of first and second forms playing all out to win. After 1 hour and 20 minutes of play 2F scored the winning goal. Mr. Campbell acted as coach and referee of all the games and was ably assisted by Mr. Clubine.

Of the B teams 1E and 2F reached the finals. Again 2F eked out a win by a one-goal margin.

BADMINTON

Early in November a badminton tournament was conducted in the gymnasium by Mr. Harris. About twenty boys took part. This was the first attempt at a boys' singles swish tournament at Lawrence Park and the ability and the interest shown by the fellows promises success for future competitions. Maurell Baxter of 4F and Frank Dimock of 5D had little difficulty in reaching the finals. Baxter won after a hard match by the score of 2-15, 15-5, 15-12.

Volleyball didn't start in earnest last fall until the weather permitted the girls to stay indoors without guilty consciences. When they finally decided summer was gone for good the girls elected Vashti Grant curator of the volleyball. She ran the schedule for form champions. The captains of the winning teams were as follows: Helen McLaughlin (5B-D), Barbara Booth (4C), June Pendock (3A-B), Mary Hunter (2D) and Isabel Hindel (1A). The second, third, fourth and fifth form teams visited North Toronto Collegiate, Northern Vocational School, and York Memorial Collegiate where they were, on the whole, successful in the games which they played. There is no inter-school schedule for the girls but only friendly competition which has satisfaction as its reward. Special mention ought to be made of the work of Vashti and the curators of all the other sports. They entirely take over and manage all the arrangements for the schedule and practice-playing. The Gym teachers are much too busy to carry on all the sports by themselves and the curators do a great deal of hard work planning the games and presiding over them. They are always on hand to make sure that things are running smoothly. Three cheers for the curators.

GIRLS' SWIMMING

The Girls' Swimming Classes achieved real heights of success at Allenby School this fall. The girls decided that rather than have competitions, they would improve their style and try new fields. A great number passed swimming tests. The classes were supervised by Miss Howard, and taught by Miss Baker who is the Instructress engaged by the Board of Education. Dorothy Jackes, Shirley Goldring and Fernley Smith are to be congratulated for having passed the Senior Swimming Test. To pass this they had to really perfect their strokes to a science. Mary Elizabeth Ingram, Ruth Davis and Fernley Smith passed their Senior Life-Saving Tests which are equal in difficulty to the tests for the Silver Life-Saving Medals. Dorothy Jackes deserves special mention

FEMMES' FURIOUS HOCKEY FLOORS BOYS

Some intelligent brain at L.P.C.I. suggested that the girls form a Hockey Team. The boys, almost without exception, guffawed when the little thought was aired to the common flock and quickly "thought on other matters." However, after the first anxious "Oh No's" were uttered, the idea began to root and take shape in the well-oiled brains of the girls. A few up-and-at-'em girls decided to try to organize and the results were AMAZING. Among the enthusiastic players were Mary Nelson, Shirley Goldring, Fernley Smith, Barbara Booth, Margaret Gibson, Dorothy Jane Piers, Jane Burton, Madge Lugston, Mary Jones, Ruth Conway, Betty Line, Myrtle White, Evelyn Millson and Helen Crowe. Mr. McLean eagerly and ably coached the team—we hope he didn't neglect the boys too terribly. He proved so good a coach, in fact, that the girls won their first game against Oakwood Collegiate. The score was 1-0. Keep at it girls — blitzkrieg 'em. The girls played Oakwood again on March 14th. Score 0-0. You're showing the boys up girls! Let's hope this will be the first of a long, long line of successful Girls' Hockey Teams.

GIRLS' BADMINTON

The Girls' Badminton Club at Lawrence Park climbed to heights of achievement this year. It entered two teams in the Inter-School City Competition. One of these teams was defeated only in the semi-finals. Our two teams met as opponents in the semi-semi finals and the team of Betty Ferguson and Joan Bartlett beat that of Daphne Line and Mary Nelson. Unfortunately in the semi-finals, and Riverdale Collegiate carried off the final honours. nately, however, these teams met their Our two teams deserve special commendation for their splendid playing. They played their hardest for the honour of the school.

At present a tournament is being held under the supervision of Betty Ferguson who is this year's curator. Assistant curator is Joan Bartlett. The girls play two mornings a week in the gym and are fighting valiantly for the title. May the best girl win!

As I lie here, my head swathed in bandages and my right leg in a splint, I decide that I did underestimate the horrors of that last trail. But somehow my winter sports' program seems to be incomplete. Oh yes, I forgot to go skiing. Well, the winter is nearly over, and the Travel Folders say that I am going to have "a glorious summer swimming, golfing, and boating in Canada's scenic summer playgrounds." Oh Boy! I can hardly wait!

Friday:

Have had considerable trouble with my goats lately concerning their dishevelled appearance at breakfast. Spent the morning drawing up a set of rules for them, but since there are a few who wouldn't look at them, I had to call these aside and speak to them privately, although it hurt me more than it did them. Very tired as I can't sit down to-night.

Saturday:

A tiger passed out on the front lawn just before lunch. I think he had my address in mind. He was crazy enough to stand in the way of Mt. Nutt's alleys which he was rolling down the hill. We all agree that it was a natural death.

Sunday:

Very tired to-day. Only killed three elephants and a man. It has been a very dull week and I hope something interesting happens next week.
